10 v. )
11 ANDRANIK GUYLASARYAN, ) DETENTION ORDER
12 Defendant. )
13 _____ )

14 Offense charged: Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud; Bank Fraud

15 Date of Detention Hearing: January 25, 2012.

16 The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and 17 based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds
18 that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably 19 assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the 20 community.

21 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

22 1. Defendant left the country shortly after the instant charges were filed. Since

01 then, he has lived in Amsterdam, the Czech Republic, Russian, Armenia, Thailand, Malaysia,
02 and back to Armenia and Russia before returning to the United States voluntarily to surrender.
03 His brother and at least one other co-conspirator are still at large. The AUSA alleges that 04 defendant indicated an intent to return to the United States to face the charges over a year ago,
05 but he did not do so until recently. The government believe that defendant would have had 06 access to large amounts of cash from the alleged conspiracy, and other friends and relatives who 07 could help him flee if he chose to do so again.

08         2.       The AUSA proffers that defendant was on probation for an attempted credit card
09 fraud conviction in California at the time the instant charges were allegedly committed.

10         3.       The defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to being a fugitive on the 11 current charges since 2010, possible Armenian citizenship, and a history of international travel.
12 He poses a risk of danger due to possible criminal history as well as the nature of the charges.

13         4.       There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will 14 reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the 15 danger to other persons or the community.

16 It is therefore ORDERED:

17         1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney
18 General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from 19 persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

20         2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 21 counsel;

22         3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the

01 person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver
02 the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection 03 with a court proceeding; and

- 04 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel
05 for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Pretrial Services
06 Officer.

07 DATED this 25th day of January, 2012.
